Clickety Clack

*Knit one purl one, knit one purl one
The band was almost done
The soft sound of the needles clickety clack Finish one row, turn around and go back*

Finally, it was taking shape, like a bird making a home in its nest we know whatever Edna made it was sure to be one of the best

Wonderful gifts each stitch made with love a creative gift that was so easy to see A jumper for this one, some scarves for them or for a new baby a layette or three

*A bonnet, a jacket and bootees too Will they need to be made in blue or in pink?
Perhaps lemon is safe, she could do them there and then Instead of having to guess or even to think*

*The knitting needles are now silent Not a sound more will they make
But what a wonderful lesson Edna has left us To always give more than you take.*
