He Tells Me to Trust and Not Fear

He tells me to trust and not fear,
He bids me each promise believe:
His presence and glory seem near,
I open my heart to receive:
I am ransomed, I know,
for His Word tells me so,
So I trust, trust, trust!

My need He is pledged to supply,
I trust for each breath that I breathe:
And since I take life at His hands,
Why not all He wishes to give?
Lord, I yield evermore,
for Thy promise is sure,
So I trust, trust, trust!

He offers me pardon and peace,
He offers me cleansing from sin;
The fountain once opened I see,
Dear Jesus, I dare to plunge in:
Now I know I am free,
for Thy blood cleanseth me,
While I trust, trust, trust!

Praise God, it is done—I am His!
The blood covers body and soul;
I am pardoned and cleansed, I am healed;
All glory, I'm ev'ry whit whole!
Praise His name, I believe,
and this moment receive,
While I trust, trust, trust!

Dwelling in the Secret Place

Dwelling in the secret place,
Overshadowed by His grace,
Looking up into His face,
Seeing only Jesus.

Hidden there from all alarm
Safe from danger, fear and harm,
Holden up by His strong arm,
Seeing only Jesus.

Dwelling there, how truly blest!
Leaving all, how sweet to rest,
Head upon my Saviour's breast,
Seeing only Jesus.

Resting there, no more to roam,
Drawing near to heaven and home,
Waiting there until He come,
Seeing only Jesus.
